INCIDENTS OF THE BATTLE OF MANASNAS.

GROVELAND, Miss., August 30, 1861. Home again ! after three months campaigning in Virginia, and three hours captivity with the immortal "Bull Runners!" And I intended to have written you a long letter, full of incident and anecdote connected with the war now progressing so gloriously in all quarters; but a lame hand, or rather lame fingers, and constant and most exquinite pain resulting from the same, have prevented me from taking pen in hand until to-day, and will preclude next time, me even now from being elaborate or discursive, and, what is better, I hope, from being
